2015 JOURNALISM SHOWCASE
May 15-16, 2015
CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2015

WELCOME

We welcome you to the 2015 Journalism Showcase. The two-day event will feature new media presentations, a live radio show with pop-up presentations, peer interviews, television, video and documentary screenings. Join us during our evening receptions where you'll catch the Class of 2015 being interviewed on the red carpet.
CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2015

SPECIAL THANKS

We wish to thank the graduating members of the Student Leadership Committee for their commitment and dedication to the J-School.

• Mark Boyer
• Jennifer Chaussee
• Guisela Contreras
• Nancy DeVille
• Beatrice Katcher
• Alexandra Garreton
• Niema Jordan
• Juan Antonio Martinez
• Chris Schodt
• Lynne Shallcross
• Le Zou

We also want to express our warmest thanks to the generous community of donors whose financial support has been indispensable to the Class of 2015. Their contributions enable the School to offer fellowships, fund reporting projects that require travel, and keep our equipment up to date. How We Got to Now
A look into how mobile technology and communication have evolved.

Balancing the Black & Blue
For Lt. Leronne Armstrong, being a police officer comes with the struggle of balancing his identity as a black male with his commitment to a job that he loves and believes in.

The Life They Lived
A look into the life of a couple that defied all the odds.

Oasis
This film takes us inside O.A.S.I.S. Clinic, a community where former and current drug users are treated for Hepatitis C, cared for without stigma and empowered to create change.

Telling App
One of the biggest challenges the journalism industry faces is engaging young people. Telling App is a mobile application to encourage youth engagement and teach newsgathering to kids.

Phone companies and correctional facilities are reaping big profits by charging inmates huge fees to stay connected with their families. Reformers say it needs to stop. Published in East Bay Express and the national radio segment for Latino USA.
From the Ground Up
Agriculture contributes greatly to climate change, but if we shift our thinking about how it’s done, it might be the most innovative and accessible tool we have to save our environment and food supply. By putting soil and carbon first, scientists, ranchers and policymakers are positioning California to lead a global ranching revival.

Washington’s Invisible Epidemic of Sexual Abuse
Over the past six years, there have been more than 1,200 allegations of staff-perpetrated sexual misconduct in Washington state’s 12 prisons—the equivalent of one every 41 hours. Even when caught, these staffers rarely face prosecution.

The Agros Report
A radio show featuring stories on Mexico’s soda tax, Cuban agriculture and a US equity firm’s role as farm owner. Plus studio interviews with Marion Nestle and Mark Bittman.

Cops and Cameras: Police Force Under Scrutiny
An in-depth look at the role cell phones and body cameras play in holding law enforcement accountable.
